

COVID-19 OPERATING PLAN FOR THE COUNTIES OF THE 24TH, 135TH, 267TH AND 377TH DISTRICT COURTS, COUNTY COURTS AT LAW,
CONSTITUTIONAL COUNTY COURTS AND JUSTICE COURTS

Recognizing the need to ensure the health and safety of litigants, attorneys, visitors, court staff, judges and other individuals entering the buildings housing the courts, the referenced district, county courts at law, constitutional and justice courts will implement, to the extent that such implementation is feasible and consistent with the availability of safety supplies and manpower, the following measures:

General

1. All judges, to the extent compliance is possible and consistent with constitutional limitations on the powers of The Supreme Court of Texas, the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals and the availability of safety supplies and manpower to the affected counties, will exercise reasonable efforts to comply with the Emergency Orders issued by the Supreme Court of Texas and Court of Criminal Appeals.
2. At the discretion of the judges of the courts referenced above, remote hearings may still be conducted in compliance with practices initiated by said courts prior to June 1, 2020.
3. The courts will consult with the local health authority as deemed appropriate by the judges of said courts and make adjustments to this operating plan if deemed necessary by the judges of the referenced courts following such consultation.
4. Judges of the referenced courts will begin setting non-essential in-person proceedings, in the discretion of the judge of the referenced court on or after June 1, 2020.

Judge and Court Staff Health

1. Judges and Court Staff who have measured temperatures equal to or greater than 99.6° F, or with new or worsening signs or symptoms of COVID-19 such as cough, shortness of breath or difficulty breathing, chills, repeated shaking with chills, muscle pain, headache, sore throat, loss of taste or smell, diarrhea, or having known close contact with a person who is confirmed to have COVID-19 will not be permitted to enter the building housing the courtroom.
2. Judges and court staff will be required to wear face coverings, practice social distancing and engage in appropriate hygiene practices to the extent consistent with the practicalities of in-person proceedings.

Scheduling

1. Judges and clerks will exercise reasonable efforts to schedule proceedings in a manner which will reduce courtroom occupancy.

Vulnerable Populations

1. "Vulnerable Populations" are persons who are over age 65 and individuals with serious underlying health conditions.
2. To the extent a judge or attorney has knowledge that a participant in a proceeding is a member of the "vulnerable population", the court and attorneys with such knowledge shall attempt to make a reasonable accommodation for the vulnerable person to protect that person's health, consistent with that person's due process rights and the rights of the parties to the proceeding. The court and court staff have no independent obligation to determine whether a person is a member of the "vulnerable population".

Social Distancing

1. All persons permitted in the court building who are not from the same household will be required to maintain adequate social distancing of at least 6 feet.
2. Social distancing of at least 6 feet will be required in common areas.
3. Social distancing of at least 6 feet will be required in the courtroom.
4. Social distancing of at least 6 feet will be required in the jury room when used for conferencing. In the case of jurors participating in a jury trial, accommodations, consistent with jury privacy and security, will be made to accomplish social distancing of at least 6 feet.

Hygiene

1. To the extent supplies and ancillary equipment are available to the county government which owns the court building, hand sanitizer dispensers will be made available to persons in the court building at the entrance to the building and the entrance to the courtroom. The absence of such hand sanitizer or dispensers shall not affect the right of the court to conduct in-person proceedings.

Screening

1. Court building security personnel will ask each person entering the building if they feel feverish, or are experiencing new or worsening signs or symptoms of COVID-19 such as cough, shortness of breath or difficulty breathing, chills, repeated shaking with chills, muscle pain, headache, sore throat, loss of taste or smell, diarrhea, or have had known close contact with a person who is confirmed to have COVID-19. A person who responds affirmatively to this inquiry will not be permitted to enter the building housing the courtroom.
2. When individuals attempt to enter the court building, Court building security personnel will use an infrared thermometer to determine the temperature of the individual. If the indicated temperature equals or exceeds 99.6°F, following 2 consecutive temperature measurements by infrared thermometer, the individual will not be permitted to enter the court building.
3. Inmates being transported from the jail to the court building will be screened for symptoms of COVID-19 and have their temperature taken before transport. If the inmates Temperature equals or exceeds 99.6° or the inmate demonstrates any symptoms of COVID-19, the inmate will not be transported.
